BIRTHING & MONETIZING YOUR GIFTS THROUGH SEXUAL SOVEREIGNTY

- CYCLE I: VISIONS & DREAMS, PART II -
MONETIZING WITH THE SACRED DREAMER

Reflect and receive with the New Moon and your Sacred Dreamer time. As you continue to dream into your sacred why and unique gifts, you are invited to tune into another layer of this process and reflect on who you are here to serve: your divine client.

The deeper you go with revealing your sacred why and the gifts you are here to bring, the more clarity you will gain on who your divine clients are and how to live from a place of devotion.

YOUR DIVINE CLIENTS

YOUR DIVINE CLIENT IS A PERSON WHOM YOU HAVE A SOUL CONTRACT TO SERVE. As the Sacred Dreamer, reflect and dream into who you are called to serve at this time. Tune into the qualities, characteristics, and energetic frequency of your divine clients. The clearer you are in who you are here to serve and the unique gifts you carry, the easier it is to discern when a client is divinely aligned.

YOUR DIVINE CLIENTS RECOGNIZE THE VALUE OF YOUR GIFTS. The more you deepen your relationship to yourself and your innate value, the more you will match your clients' energetic frequency, magnetically attracting those who are ready to invest in themselves through working with you.

You are the key to the transformation that your divine clients desire.

I BELIEVE YOUR SOUL WILL RECOGNIZE A DIVINE CLIENT WHEN YOU CONNECT AND SPEAK WITH THEM. I usually feel my heart expanding and tingles in my body. When meeting a divine client, I am aware that our connection and agreement goes beyond what we can both see or know. I believe our souls have made an agreement before birth to evolve together; I call this the Soul Contract. Our various Soul Contracts have their own divine timing, much like all of life's happenings. I've had many clients share with me that they had already been following my work for years and always knew they wanted to work with me, but they were not ready until NOW to say YES to Temple Body Arts.

TRUST IN THE DIVINE TIMING and focus on creating authentic personal connections with the potential divine clients you feel drawn to work with. As you build your platform and offer value and your gifts for free at first, you create a relationship of safety, authenticity, and love which helps form a bridge from where you are now to your divine clients. Through this process and the connections you nurture, you create the space for the currency of money and opportunity to flow back to you.

Connection = Currency

AS I WAS PREPARING TO LEAD THE FIRST TEMPLE BODY INITIATION, I would meditate on calling in my divine clients. As I meditated on my clients one day, I received a mudra mantra to magnetically attract them.

"I magnetically attract all the women who are ready to say YES and invest in their Temple Bodies."

As I spoke these words, I could feel my energy matching the energetic frequency of my divine clients.

Aligning your electromagnetic frequency with the clients you are calling in is just as important as the practical online funnels you build online.

DISCOVERING YOUR DIVINE CLIENTS

Listen to the Divine Client Visualization and journal afterward. Tune into your heart and how it feels to be in the presence of your divine clients doing the work you were born to share.

Let yourself continue to dream as you do this process below, even if knowing who you are here to serve feels like a distant reality, just let yourself imagine and dream. This process is an evolution, trust the clarity will come with time.

WHAT ARE THE ELEMENTS AND QUALITIES OF YOUR DIVINE CLIENT? Who are they? Consider demographics such as gender, identity, sexual orientation, age, life stage, ethnicity, education, relationship status, family, special needs/ disabilities, level of accessibility, income, profession, political, religious and spiritual orientation, nationalities, lifestyle, and more.

What do your divine clients long for? What are they passionate about? What is their level of experience i.e. beginner or advanced? What is their level of commitment?

Why do your divine clients come to you? How do they relate to your story, your experience, and your offering? What are the common challenges they experience? What do they struggle with? What problem do they want to be solved? What transformation will you provide for them?

If you haven't worked with a divine client yet, reflect on your life experiences and where you have felt most equipped to serve and support others. When friends/family/people reach out to you for support, what do they want your help with? Where have you felt confident and energized in being of service? What skills and expertise do you want to develop further?

DISCOVERING YOUR DIVINE CLIENTS

Imagine one of your clients has written you a letter thanking you for the transformation you've provided for them. What does it say? What success are they experiencing in their lives as a result of working with you? If you already work with your divine clients, gather a letter or words of praise you have received from them, or perhaps reach out to a client or even friend who has received your gifts and ask them to write a reflection of how your support has changed their life.

Reach out to the sisterhood in this process too, perhaps you can swap sessions with one another in exchange for testimonials!

DISCOVERING YOUR PATH OF SERVICE: A LETTER OF DEVOTION

WRITE A LETTER OF DEVOTION TO THE GREAT MOTHER/DIVINE CREATIVE SPIRIT. Allow this process to align you with your soul's purpose and Sacred Why. Dance or meditate before writing this letter, let the words flow from a place of embodiment, gratitude, and connection to your essence. Ask yourself how you are being called to show up and be of service to something beyond yourself. How do you vow or promise to live your life as a vessel of love and living prayer of gratitude? See my letter as an example below.

April 24th, 2018

Great Mother

I honor you

Thank you for your protection and grace.

I love you

Thank you for holding me through all of my initiations.

I feel your love

I bow to you

And I promise to walk in service to you, to protect you to teach others the beauty way of grace and love.

Thank you for guiding me to this moment

For giving me the strength to say YES to life and my mission.

I see you, Great Mother

In all your faces

I love you.

I promise to commit to always walking in integrity and being a divine embodiment of love for all to remember their essence.

Great mother, if it is in the highest alignment with my purpose on this earth at this time to carry a child and give birth, I offer my temple womb for your creation.

And I surrender my desire with trust that I will be shown with time my greatest destiny.

Great Mother, please bring forth the allies and tribe to bring the rites of passage through into being so that we can birth a new paradigm through the daughters of this Earth.

I bow humbly to your presence in my life and thank you for your love.

I offer my Temple Body as a vessel for your love.

Your daughter,

Sofiah Katherine Thom

Daughter of Alicia Thom, granddaughter of Maria Gibbs and Diana Malim Thom.

Great-granddaughter of Anne and Great-great-granddaughter of Florence.
